

Ten Kickass Quotes From Fuel & Fire

- 1) As a child back in Ireland, my Nana used to regale me with stories of Keys and their Guards, fighting to slay all of the dragons that could be faced by mortal men.
- 2) I could feel the rabbit's light, feel the warmth, taste the ash that came from a being blessed with the power to control a flame. And based on the way it was running away from the scene, this explosion was no accident.
- 3) Her hair and eyes looked like the reflections in a flame, and when she'd looked at me outside, I'd seen the fire burning brightly there. She was trouble, could sense that a mile over.
- 4) Someone had pulled the pin from this grenade. It was only a matter of time before it exploded. That was what we'd seen. The explosion.
- 5) Her scent was a mix of burning candles and lilac, like someone had been lighting incense around her and the smell had gotten caught in her hair.
- 6) A gasp. A choke. An unsuccessful grab at my throat. That was how I came back from the dead.
- 7) Footsteps approached. I closed my eyes. Held my breath. Slowed my heartbeat. Played dead better than any good doggie could. It was all I could do to stay conscious.
- 8) "You will be paid handsomely as long as I make it back to my trust fund alive." I winked.
- 9) Priorities: Save Jaina's life first. Ask questions and/or start a revolution later.
- 10) She was a beautiful girl. Too bad her heart was rotted through.