

Ten Kickass Quotes From Keys of the Dawn

- 1) We didn't start the fire, but we could light another.
- 2) "What happened when Livingston tried to take you from me? I shot out the tires of the car you were in. And when they took Jainey? I went to war. And when Kyp fell in that Rift? I threw myself right in after him. What does that look like to you?"
"Like you make reckless decisions?" He smirked.
- 3) I was beginning to wonder what the hell happened to me while I was dead.
- 4) "You are rolling the dice to a gameboard you cannot even visualize, Mr. Madison."
- 5) All my nightmares involved this woman. Her fighting me, tormenting me, killing me. It was time I put a stop to that. I was not weak. I would not allow her to make me weak.
- 6) Pain was temporary, but death was imminent. I just needed to make sure she got there first.
- 7) This fight would not end the way the other had. She would have to kill me harder than last time.
- 8) A different enemy, but the same unending war.
- 9) I love you more than I have the words to explain, and I will hold you, your safety, your peace, close to my heart and as the direction of my purpose for all of my remaining breaths.
- 10) "The love of all my lives."
